Coursework & Tutorial Support

Business is booming for us but to ensure we don't become complacent, we maintain and update our training courses to suit new marketplaces.

For example, our FREE work experience scheme has become so successful that we don't have enough students to fulfil demands. It's nice to give something back....and N E S T thanks Jordy, one of our former students and soon-to-be- mother, for promoting us to her north London 'new mums' / mums-to-be yoga group.

New Training Ideas

Enhance your profile by offering that 'something extra' such as an advisory service for parents

Use your accreditation and research to start up workshops for mothers in need of support and help in a number of areas such as breastfeeding, PND, routine, sleep and multiples

Contact local maternity clinics and GP surgeries to help accommodate your own support groupS
